A much admired Caledon property tucked away in the hills close to Glen Haffy Conservation Area. The storybook maple lined driveway leads to the century farm house which is placed beside a clear spring-fed pond all set on 25 private rolling acres. Sit on the front verandah and soak in the quiet pastoral scene before you. Spend time in the detached studio. Gaze into the pond reflecting the original barn and wood roofed silo. The Bruce Trail is accessed from the back of Briardale and you can hike and ski for miles. Climb the hill and see Schomberg 30 km away. This property is a rural oasis, yet 10 mins to retail, restaurants, schools and a new hospital. The land offers wonderful fenced vegetable garden and a large meadow at the south end of the property plus mature woodlands.

The Barns

A classic early Ontario barn with good ceiling height, impressive stone work and massive beams. The wood roofed silo is one of the few remaining in the area and adds charm to Briardale.

Briardale has a long and storied history and was once part of the Colonel Beardmore Farm a name long established in Ontario's agricultural and
